Baccalaureate degrees

Students who enroll in CCB programs are a highly diverse group. With an average age over 30, most CCB students choose to attend a community college close to home to allow for full-time employment, care for family, and play an active role in their communities.⁽¹⁾

ON AVERAGE, CCB GRADUATES ARE

40% PEOPLE OF COLOR & 57% FEMALE

Additionally, CCB programs enroll students who are under-represented in baccalaureate degree attainment. More than 1/3 of all CCB-conferring colleges in the U.S. are high Hispanic-serving institutions and 40% of all tribal colleges confer bachelor's degrees.⁽¹⁾

ARIZONA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

The Tribal College Dual Enrollment Program provides Arizona's high school students the opportunity to take college courses for both high school and college credit. Course costs are free to the student. Participating tribal colleges are reimbursed for tuition and fees associated with participating students. Effective September 24, 2022, the Arizona state legislature passed SB1300 allowing the Arizona Department of Education to reimburse the cost of books and instructional materials as well.

Who does the program serve?

Arizona high school and home school students (includes Native and Non-Native Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors)

Participating Tribal Colleges/Universities

Diné College

Tohono O'odham Community College

Navajo Technical University

How to get started?

The dual enrollment program requires high school districts to enter into an agreement with participating TCUs.

Students

- Connect with your high school counselor to learn more about the program

School Districts

- Please contact the three participating TCUs to learn more about the program agreements and policies

Why does this program exist?

General requirements for dual enrollment in Arizona are governed within the Arizona Revised Statute 15-1821.01.

In the 2015 Legislative session, the tribal college dual enrollment program was enacted. Thus, ARS Title 15, chapter 2, was amended by adding section 15-244.01 Tribal College Dual Enrollment Program Fund.

Benefits of the Program

Free

- Tuition and fees covered
- Books and instructional materials covered

Choice and Access

- Courses are available in-person or online
- Credits are transferable to other institutions
- Flexible for rural and remote students

College Resources

- Access to TCU tutoring centers and academic resources
- Opportunity to experience and understand college environments

Parent Train the Trainer Application 2023

Volunteer Job Description

Parent Point of Contact: Andrea Glenn (andrea.glenn@azed.gov) or Jessica Solis (jessica.solis@bealeaderfoundation.org)

Summary: As a parent volunteer supporting FAFSA completion efforts, you will play a crucial role in helping students and families navigate the financial aid application process. Your primary responsibility will be to use your contacts, networks, and social media channels to positively influence FAFSA completion rates in Arizona! As an identified leader and influencer in your community, you will motivate other parents to help spread the word about the importance of FAFSA, as well as be a resource to help students and families know where they can get FAFSA support. This volunteer position will require 1 to 2 hours per week, during the FAFSA application period.

Primary Responsibilities:

- Help disseminate flyers and social media content regarding important FAFSA information, dates and deadlines.
- Help create social media content to send out to other parents (PTAs, Booster Clubs, etc.) communicating FAFSA information.
- Attend trainings to familiarize yourself with FAFSA resources and social media flyers for outreach.
- Be able to help explain the purpose and importance of completing a FAFSA.
- Direct students and parents to FAFSA support and resources both local and nationally.
- Collaborate with college access and school staff and other volunteers.

Notes:

- Be dependable and punctual.
